PROUD OF YOU

KEEP GOING

Kolin had one goal - Purple belt by 30. Well, even with working overtime for practically over a year and being a new father, he did just that. Purple belt at 30. I'm so proud of how far he's come, the discipline he has that I wish I had, and the community of friends he has found at Tipping Point.

Here's to hoping you can get Grace to follow in your footsteps 🥹. For those of you that don't know, we came up with the name Grace from the Gracie family, who basically created Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu 🥳.

RIP Dick Stuber

A great man. A great memorial. A father and a mentor for Lizette. A humble man, but so accomplished. A family man, a Marine Pilot and then an Airline Captain for 29 years. He will be missed by all that knew him. A Marine is never left behind. Rest in Peace Dick, we love you! Lizette and Mike.

Pictures of my surgery.

I have 8 titanium screws and a titanium plate covering 2 cadaver bones placed in my neck. I wear my neck brace for the majority of the day. The bone stimulator device I need to wear for 4 hours a day for a month. —Kindra
