Jaynane & Friends

This was a huge 400 pound flag that was flown for two weeks over the snake river Canyon in Twin Falls. It was strung from one side to the other side by helicopter in the middle of the night and available the next day for two weeks. It was gorgeous blowing in the breeze with reflection in the river.

The other photos are from gathering with friends and then the day that Denise and I another friend spent in Sun Valley up at the top of the summit. It was a lovely getaway for me and a wonderful reconnection after being away for 10 years. — Jaynane
