Good morning people! Chewbacca here, taking over for a minute to let you all know I am 3 months old now! I've learned to walk on a leash and sit but I'm still working on the down command - it's hard because there are so many distractions!!! I love my big brother Brady he lets me chase him all over the yard and chew on his ears. (Don't tell anyone but I'm the one who taught him how to dig in the dirt.) Please tell my mom to buy me more little trees so I can chew on them, oh, and a pool. Thanks! - Chewie

Hi everyone, Brady here to set the record straight. Chewie did not teach me how to dig in the dirt, I have just chosen to take up gardening and if you ask my mom I'm a really good helper. Also sticks are for puppies, I'd prefer a bone please. And yes to a pool. Texas is hot! Thanks - Brady

I just can't believe you're gone. Our hearts are so broken. You are such a special guy- misunderstood by most but deeply loved by all that took the time to know you. You were always perfect to me.

I feel so lucky to have been your person. We walked through so many chapters of life together. Our last years together filled with peace, space, happiness, laughs, and so much love. And it's here that he leaves me, with a life so full.

So thank you Biggie, my grumbly little companion and my soul dog, for helping me make it here safely and for all the pit stops and belly laughs along the way.

I know you are zooming around in doggy heaven growling at all the UPS trucks you can find.

Love you forever ❤️

—Ali & Jimmy

Our sweet girl is 9 months old! Astrid loves dancing, clapping her hands, playing with her big brother, and trying all sorts of food. She's almost on the move. Any day now! -Nicole

I missed the 8 month photo, so I added it to cover my tracks.

Happy 3rd Birthday to Tedy! I love watching you explore the world around you with such confidence and making new friends, wherever you go. You're independent, always on the move, and you give the absolute BEST hugs ❤️ We love you so much! Can't wait to see what this next year has in store for you! -Nicole
